Recognized as one of the finest design houses in the country, the San Francisco Decorator Showcase never disappoints. Leading Bay Area interior and landscape designers come together each year to create spectacularly imaginative spaces. The Showcase benefits San Francisco's University High School and is a must-see for anyone interested in great home and garden design. The 28th Annual San Francisco Decorator Showcase opens on April 24th. While you won't be able to see this year's incredible designs until then, California Home & Design takes a look back at last year's showcase to whet your appetite.
